Subject: Thank You!

Hi Roena,

Thank you so much for calling the other night. It was such a pleasure to talk to you! I'm ecstatic to have found another branch of the tree! Below is the information about my small branch of the tree that I have collected so far.

I am very interested in the Brown family and would love any information you could send. Hopefully during my trip to the Defiance area I will be able to find more information, too.

I also have some pictures I will scan and send to you, if you are interested. I have two Partee Reunion pictures, and some pictures of Johanna and Thomas Reid (I think) as well as one of the daughters, and Jacob Walter. I also have a Reid family portrait. Let me know if you are interested in any of this.

Let me know if you talk to your cousin Annie and if she would like visitors next weekend! I wish very much that you were living in Ohio and that I could visit with you next weekend. I would love to hear your story -- it sounds as if you have had an interesting life! Hopefully we will get a chance to visit someday!

Thank you again for calling.

Your cousin,
Wendy

A heartless coquette is a perfect incarnation of Cupid; for when her trembling lover is about to pop the question, she has her beau in a quiver.

"Annexation and war"—that's true, every word of it," said a pert old maid; "no sooner do you get married than you begin to fight!"

An Inhuman Monster.

An occurrence of a most disgraceful and brutal character was brought to notice in the village of Gilboa a few days since. Some boys playing by Stout's dam, on the river Blanchard, found a pair of pantaloons in which was the mutilated body of a new born male infant. A Coroner's inquest was held by John Rumsey, Esq., when the jury found that the child came to his death by violence, inflicted by its father, J. O. Hook, a water doctor, of that place.

The head of the child was mashed and several large incisions were found on the body, which was shockingly mutilated and disembowelled. The mother of the child testified that about two weeks ago she was delivered of a child by her husband, without witnesses—that about half an hour after its birth he showed it to her dead, but she did not see it alive, and did not know what had become of it. Several medical gentlemen were called in by the Coroner's jury who upon examination testified that Severity.—Why these harsh words? They only produce obstinacy, and hatred to the man that utters them—soft ones would have had a better effect, and prevented those feelings of revenge which severity produces. Those cross looks will never gain friends—they are despised—produce hatred, not love. Why not abandon them at once? There is nothing gained by being crusty. Have an air of calmness and quietude—speak kindly to every one, and you will move along in your daily routine with more ease, and much more expeditiously.—Factory Girl's Album.

Death.—It is a dreadful sight to see old men making more provision to live than preparation to die; for the steel being spent the knife cannot cut, the sun being set the day cannot tarry, and old age being come life cannot long endure.

I have a regard, said Tatmash, for every man on board that ship, from the captain down to the crew—down even to the [illegible] with tatooed arms, sweating among the [illegible] coppers in the galley, who used (with a loving affection) to send me locks of his hair in the soup!

Benevolence.—He that clothes the poor, clothes his own soul. He that sweetens the cup of affliction, sweetens his own heart. He that feeds the hungry, spreads out a banquet more sweet and refreshing than luxury can bestow.

DEFIANCE DEMOCRAT

DEFIANCE, OHIO:
Thursday, July 9, 1846.

For Governor of Ohio,
[illegible]
Of Trumbull County

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.
6th Congressional District.

The delegates from the respective counties composing the 6th Congressional District, are requested to convene at Kalida, Putnam county, at ten o'clock, A. M., on Thursday the 27th day of August next, for the purpose of selecting a suitable candidate to be supported by the democracy of said district for their representative in Congress.

By agreement of the Congressional Central Committee.

JAMES CUNNINGHAM, Chairman.
July 2, 1846.

From the South.

Within the last week we have received little of interest from the army. The report of the revolution in Yucatan is confirmed, and in fact all southern Mexico appears to be in a state of revolt—accounts concurring [illegible] to take command of the Hon. William Allen.

The Washington Union announces the resignation of Mr. Allen, as Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations. According to the recent turn affairs had taken in the Senate, this was the only course left that gentleman to pursue, consistent with his honor and the interests of the country. Opposed by a coalition of federalists and the southern oligarchy, who were zealous in attempting to frustrate every measure introduced or supported by him, it will not appear strange that he has thought proper to withdraw from his unpleasant position, the duties consequent upon which, he had discharged with fidelity to his country, and honor to himself. His place has been filled by a gentleman of the true patrician order, (Mr. McDuffie of South Carolina,) and that august and dictatorial body can now have every thing their own way, during the remainder of the session, in legislating for the peculiar interests of the country, (that is, the interests of the South,) should that portion of the Union have any further favors to ask, or the government any to bestow.

We deem the present a proper time to express what we believe to be the universal sentiment of the democratic party of the north-the infant was living at its birth; and the pantaloons were identified as the property of the unnatural father. The only object for the commission of this wanton and brutal murder appears to have been that Book had been married but a short time and wished to conceal the condition of his wife from the world. After the rendition of the verdict of the jury, the Coroner proceeded on last Saturday night to Esq. Guysinger's office with the prisoner, placing him in charge of a citizen of the name of Rutherford, who, on entering the magistrate's office, aided the prisoner to escape, and left with him. Neither have since been heard of—though immediately pursued, but officers are on Book's track, and it is to be hoped he will be taken, and receive the just reward of his atrocious cruelty. He is about five feet seven inches high, light hair, dark eye brows, and dark hazel eyes, and has considerable assurance of manner. Rewards we learn have been offered by citizens of Gilboa for his apprehension.

Book had been but a few weeks a resident of the county. Of his previous residence or history we know nothing. He is probably one of those strolling vagabonds who practice on the credulity of the ignorant, and never find it safe to be long that Santa Ana is in the command of the insurgents; and in North Mexico, the people are even now ready to join the American army. The Departments are pronouncing against Paredes in every direction. His heavy demands upon the churches and the States have rendered him more unpopular than before. It is thought he cannot maintain his power for any considerable length of time. In short, there is little prospect of a meeting of the two forces for some time to come, as Mexico has about as much at present as she can attend to, in fighting herself.

Camp Washington—The Governor, &c.

A few weeks ago, it will be remembered, we published an article entitled "The Call Answered," by which it appeared that, in despite the croakings of the Mexican party, a sufficiency of volunteers were then either in or on their way to Camp Washington, to answer the requisition of the President; and now it appears, that, through the imbecility of the Governor, and the indiscretion of some of the officers of his appointment, there have been mustered into camp a surplus of five or six companies, and which has resulted in the dismissal of that number from the service, three of which were composed of Germans, from Cincinnati, who were among the first enrolled and in camp. This gave rise to a large meeting of the citizens of that city, who in appropriate resolutions denounced the course of the Governor as partial, and characterized throughout by bad management; in fact the complaint against that functionary is general, and his weakness and indecision has become proverbial. He has induced through his officers, the enrolment of volunteers to an indefinite extent, which by proper precautions might easily have been conducted without the necessity of a surplus; and it may readily be supposed that those whose services have been dispensed with, consider themselves shamefully aggrieved. Various opinions are afloat as to the motives which actuated the governor, in proscribing those particular companies. Some say a disproportionate number of those from the city were excluded, for the sake of securing officers from the country. Others, that democratic companies were dismissed to secure whig officers: and it is the general impression that the camp has not been kept entirely free from party feeling.

The following is a list of the companies retained, with the name of the commandant of each:

west. And when we say that his course on the Oregon question, throughout, has been approved—that confidence in his integrity is unbounded, and that the thanks of a wronged and indignant people, are due him, for his manly independence and Roman firmness, we but give voice to feelings of the people in this portion of the State.

Murder at Mansfield.

The Mansfield papers bring us intelligence of an affray of the most painful and fatal character, which took place between FRANKLIN BARKER, Esq., and ROBERT BOWLAND, his brother-in-law, and which resulted in the death of the former. The cause which brought about this tragical affair, had its existence in certain reports, said to have been put in circulation by Mr. Barker, prejudicial to the character of the wife of Mr. Bowland; and for near two years had the peaceful relations of the two families been disturbed in consequence of an agitation of the reports by the former, and the threats of violence by the latter, until finally, on Thursday the 18th inst., those threats were carried into fatal execution.

It appears that during the day Bowland had become intoxicated, and in the evening commenced a search for Barker, who he found on the street, in conversation with a friend, and without ceremony sprung upon him, stabbing him with a large pruning knife in the upper region of the abdomen, penetrating his stomach. The wound was pronounced fatal by the surgeon who dressed it, and he expired on the following Saturday morning. His remains were taken to the residence of his father, in Plymouth, and interred by the Odd Fellows, of which fraternity he was a zealous and worthy member. Bowland was immediately arrested and taken to prison.

Our acquaintance with the actors in this melancholy catastrophe, has been intimate. The parents of both reside in Richland county, and are among its most respectable, influential and wealthy citizens. Mr. Barker was a young attorney of fine talents and rare accomplishments, who, for his gentlemanly deportment and excellent social qualities, was universally esteemed, and gave promise of filling his sphere of usefulness, with honor. Mr. Bowland has been several years in the Navy, in the capacity of Midshipman.

The Army in Mexico.

The following appears to be a just estimate of the force now upon the Rio Grande under command of Major General Taylor:

U. S. Regulars,		3,500
Louisiana Volunteers,		4,500
Texas,	do	750
Alabama,	do	750
Kentucky,	do	750
Missouri,	do	750
Total,		11,000

Mr. Walker, Secretary of the Treasury, has issued orders to grant clearances to Matamoras, thus throwing open Northern Mexico to American products and manufactures.

in any one place. His inhuman cruelty in this instance warrants us in believing that as he has begun his career of crime with so demoniac an act of horror, he will scarcely stop at any act of wickedness or enormity which his passions may dictate. That a father should imbrue his hands in the blood of his own offspring for so utterly inadequate a cause marks a destitution of all moral sentiment painful to reflect upon.—Kalida Venture.

Subject: visit

Dear Frank & Joan,

It was a great day. You have no idea how much I enjoyed Scott & Shully's visit. I hope they will come again. I'm not sure that we treated Shully very well. When he came, he announced his agenda for the day which included some genealogy, lunch, and taking Shully shopping. Well, we did the genealogy alright, stopped, met Annie for lunch, came back and right into the genealogy again. Meanwhile, Shully read her book, crouched, played the organ and now and then appeared at the door, to see if we were ever going to stop and let the shopping begin. Finally Scott said he would have to stop. I think this happened a couple times. Well, I know you understands how this gene disease just takes over and someone who doesn't have it just can't understand what has happened. I hope Shully found something she wanted and Scott could get it for her. Maybe that would help her forgive him for spending the day in my computer room. You know, Shully is the only one who has visited me that looked at my painting of this white bearded, distinguished looking gentleman, sitting on the rocks of Little Round Top visualizing the shadowy figures of the soldiers in the valley and his famous charge that saved the 2nd day of the three day battle of Gettysburg. She knew it was Gen. Lawrence Joshua Chamberlain.

I planned to go up to the library this morning but the temp. is only 33 degrees which wouldn't stop me but the wind is gusting to 30+ me/hr. and that does.

My time line for Nathan has been reduced another two years from the 1810 NY census to the marriage of Reuben in 1818 to 1816 when Scott found Nathan's name on a voters list in Jackson Co., OH. Wouldn't it have been great if they had kept a log of how they traveled from NY to Jackson Co.

Thanks for having son Scott who is retrieving all these interesting things about our ancestors and most especially for getting me in touch with you and Joan. I do hope you will come this way soon.

Love, Cousin Roena

Dear Mr. Allen,

In researching the Town of Milton there is a problem. The Town of Milton was created in 1790 as part of the military tract. The land in my area was given to Revolutionary war soldiers for their service. For instance, a private received 500, a captain 1500. They were given out by lottery in 500 units and most of the soldiers who received them did not take up the land but rather sold the land to others. In fact, many sold the land several times causing a delay in the issuance of deeds. The Town of Milton at the time was in Onondaga County. In 1799 Cayuga County was formed from portions of Onondaga County and Milton was then a part of Cayuga County. In 1804, Seneca County was formed from Cayuga with Milton remaining in Cayuga. However, Tompkins County was formed in 1817 and a half of Milton, a portion of Cayuga County and Seneca County was taken to create it. Today the portion of Milton that remains in Cayuga County is called the Town of Genoa. That portion of Milton that is today in Tompkins County is called the Town of Lansing. You said that you had the deeds. On the deed will be listed the great lot number. The Great lots that became the Town of Genoa were #1-#40. The rest of the former Milton became the Town of Lansing in Tompkins County. If you deeds are in the town of Lansing, I would suggest that you write to the Dewitt Historical Society in Ithaca, New York for assistance or to the Lansing Town Historian.

I looked at the tax rolls for Milton for the year 1801-1804. Frankly, there were very few Browns during those years. You asked if I would be able to establish relationships of the Browns listed in Milton in the 1800 census. The first three on the list are neighboring farms so I suspect that they may be related but I did not find the Browns in any of my county churches in that area to confirm any of this and they do not appear in the early newspapers of which there were only two in the county. I do not find a minister Brown in my county during that period.

The land that they settled on also presents a challenge. It was cleared Indian land and many settlers came, settled there temporarily for two or three years while they sized up the land that they eventually wanted to own. These were church going people and the closest church to them was 16 miles in Aurora. In 1816 they were hit by the year without summer—only three days did not have frost and a true scarcity of food set in. The pioneers from this area petitioned Albany to order the distilleries to stop making booze and distribute the grain instead for the survival of the people. Those that survived that year were hit in 1817 by a flu epidemic that because of the weakened condition of the people killed one fourth of the population of New York State. Yes, people were buried but without record or head stones. The pioneer cemeteries in that part of my county have destroyed headstones or missing ones, and are overgrown and discarded. . There are no official cemetery records only an eye ball record from 1929, 1959 and 1979.

Without church records, newspaper accounts, wills (there were none for the Browns of Milton) and a state that did not require vital records to be kept until 1880s, it is impossible to establish relationships. I am enclosing some surrogate legals from the Albany newspaper—they are faint and in very small print. Albany was the capital of the State so the larger estates were advertised and heard there during the pioneer era.

I am enclosing the tax rolls info that I found and newspaper items for a Nathan Brown. The one item I found interesting—Rev. Samuel Robbins Brown and a Rev Nathan Brown were the first missionaries to Japan which was opened up during the Millard Fillmore presidency. The two also translated the Bible into Japanese. Samuel Robbins Brown is well known and his father was Timothy Brown and they lived in the Town of Fleming where Brown conducted a Boy's school and was past of the Dutch Reformed church known as Sand Beach. I looked at what I had about Brown from Yale where he attended and did not find anything else about his family except his father was Timothy and his mother, Phoebe Brown was a writer of hymns.

I am sorry that I can not be of more assistance. I know that we have sent you the items that we have before so if there is duplication, please forgive me.

Very truly yours,

Sheila S. Tucker, Cayuga County Historian

It is not known for sure that this is where Jacob is buried. His daughter, Alma, wrote a book, "Seeds of Truth" in which she says that they homesteaded in Sheridan County in 1886 on 7 1/2 acres just north of Buffalo Park. Buffalo Park is in Gove County. This cemetery in Gove County would have been the closest to their home. I find on the internet that other pioneers of this part of Sheridan County were buried in Gove County.
Jacob was born to Henry and Margaret Bright Brown. Both Jacob's father, Henry, and grandfather, Nathan, were Methodist ministers as was Jacob. He married Sarah Friend on January 26, 1835 in Hocking County, Ohio and they had seven children: Henry, Minerva, Elizabeth, Margret Rowena, Mary Ann, Andrew H. and Amanda. Upon Sarah's death he married Miriam Beardsley December 18, 1849 in LaSalle County, Illinois. They had nine more children: Ella, Charles, Ellen, Sadie, Florence, Chester, Alma Frances, Alta and an unknown.

passed the official chairs and is the present vice grand of his lodge. His political affiliations have always been with the Democratic party, though he has never been aggressive in political affairs; he has never sought political office, being more interested in his own personal affairs and the various official positions coming to him through his interest in church and school affairs.

Mr. Talbott is an upright, honorable citizen, sustaining a just and well earned reputation for strict integrity and uprightness of character.

ELIZABETH BROWN.

Probably no man in Jasper county was more widely and favorably known than George H. Brown, recently deceased. He had extensive business interests in the county, was a man of high ideals and noble Christian character, and was beloved and respected by a host of friends. His life was a reproach to wrong-doers, and was well worthy of emulation by the young men of this generation. He was born in Jackson county, Ohio, in May, 1816, and was a son of Zepheniah Brown, who was born in Vermont in 1789, and moved thence to Cayuga county, New York. Here the elder Brown grew to manhood, moving later to Pickaway county, Ohio, where he married Elizabeth Headley, and later moved to Tippecanoe county, in 1827. Here the wife died, in 1842. He bought large tracts of land, and he died in 1875, leaving a large family of eleven children.

George H. Brown came to Jasper county in 1840, locating in Barclay township. All this country was at that time wild land, and but few settlers inhabited it. He entered land in section thirty-four, which he improved and lived upon about eight years. He then exchanged it for other property, speculating considerably in lands and cattle. He was a shrewd man of business and made a great deal of money in these ventures, owning at one time thirty-two hundred acres of land. He was of untiring industry and energy, and started his children with good farms. He was twice married, first to Nancy Welch, by whom he had one child, who died in infancy. Mrs. Brown died a few years later. He was next united to Miss Elizabeth Nichols, our subject. In 1844 he was elected county commissioner, and served in that office ten years. In 1875 he was elected to the legislature on the Independent ticket, and was re-elected in 1878 by a flattering majority. He filled this office with credit to himself and his constituency, working only for the public good. He was a man of broad knowledge, gained almost entirely through his own efforts. His death occurred February 18, 1896, and caused a loss that will long be felt in the community.

Elizabeth Brown is a daughter of George W. and Rebecca (Lewis) Nichols, and came with her parents in 1839 from Champaign county, Ohio, to this state, locating about one mile from the Brown homestead. They endured the hardships of pioneer life, and both parents died in this county, the father in his seventy-seventh year and the mother in her seventy-fifth. Elizabeth Nichols married George W. Brown and reared a family of nine children. These children are now married and many of them have interesting families of their own. They are as follows: Caroline, wife of Nelson Randle, has four children, Edward, Juletta, James and Carrie B.; Evaline, the widow of John C. Randle, has four children, Lycurgus, Belle, Cecil Clyde and Grant; Cecelia married a Mr. Moore and has eight children, Ross, Frank, Chase, Elizabeth, Clara, Blanch, Iva and Joseph; George H. has one child, Charles P.; Rebecca is the wife of Hugh W. Porter, of Rensselaer; Margaret M. is the wife of Dr. Carson, of California; Elizabeth is the wife of Benjamin Harris, and they have three children, Cedella, Mildred and Ruth; Isabella is the wife of Rev. J. L. Brady, of Rensselaer; and Rachel A. is the wife of Charles W. Coen, and has one child, Delos. Mrs. Brown resides in a handsome brick edifice which was purchased by her husband. They were both members of the Christian church, and she is still an active worker in that organization, where she is highly esteemed, as, indeed, she is wherever she is known.

CHARLES O. BLIND.

This well known farmer, a trustee of Adams township, Warren county, was born on the farm where he now lives March 11, 1861. He is a son of John and Frances Mary (Gwin) Blind, natives of Ohio, the former of whom came to Indiana with his father at an early day. The sketch of this family will be found in that of Michael Blind on another page of this work. The father of our subject was twice married, his first wife being Harriet Goodfred, by whom he had one child, Marcelius. His second wife was Frances Mary Gwin, born in Medina township, December 15, 1832, and her father was one of the early settlers of that township. Of this marriage four children were born, namely: George N., a farmer in Adams township; Frank B., also a farmer and stock-raiser in the same township; Anna M., wife of C. E. Russell; and Charles O.

The father of our subject came to Warren county about 1826 and located in Medina township, thence removing to Adams township and locating on the farm now occupied by his son Frank, where he remained until 1860, and then removed to the farm where our subject now lives, and where his death took place September 13, 1889, in his sixty-seventh year. He was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal church and a most estimable man. His widow is still living and resides in Pine Village.

Quest. 12. Who have died this year?

Rev. J. Brown, son of Rev. Nathan and Mrs. Margaret Brown, was born on the east side of the Cayuga Lake, in the state of New York, September 18, 1788. In 1805, when in the morning of life, he was awakened to a sense of his danger in an unregenerated state, and by faith in Jesus Christ was brought to the knowledge of pardoning mercy. He united with the Methodist Church, of which he remained a member and an honor to the day of his death.

In 1809, in Pickaway County, he was licensed to preach, and at the same quarterly conference was recommended to the old Western Conference for the regular work of the itinerant ministry. He was received by that body at its session in 1810, and labored successfully on Holston Circuit with James Axley. In 1811 he labored on Powell's Valley Circuit alone; in 1812, on Little Kanawha; in 1813, on Letart Falls, in the Ohio Conference. In 1814, being worn down by extreme hard labor, he located and remained out of the regular work for five years. After his readmission he traveled Little Kanawha and Deer Creek Circuits, and was then sent as presiding elder to the Kanawha District, in what was then the Kentucky Conference, for five successive years. Here his field of labor extended from near the city of Portsmouth to the waters of James River. It was in this arduous field, where the rides were long and the exposure great, that his health received that shock from which it never recovered. In the year 1826 he was granted an honorable superannuation, and was continued in that relation in the Ohio and Kentucky Conferences till death closed his connection with the militant Church. Father Brown was very extensively and favorably known, and it is only necessary to say that, though his acquirements were gained under great disadvantages, his talents were such as to command respect in any community. Those who knew him in the days of his strength report him as an able minister of the New Testament, and many are the seals of his faithful ministry.

During all those long years of deep affliction, when from bodily infirmity he was almost laid aside from public duty, he maintained that sweetness of disposition and beautiful consistency of Christian character which won for him the esteem of all who knew him. He fell asleep quietly, and with great dignity, in his own house, on the 23d of March, 1859, closing a long and instructive life with many words of beautiful simplicity. His faithful and affectionate wife, as she tendered him a little water, heard the same cheerful voice reply, "No, my dear, you may drink here, I will drink over yonder." He spoke no more; but the stamp of victory was left on the brow of the aged soldier. Tried friends wept around his bier, and faithful fellow-soldiers followed his remains to the place of quiet rest in the beautiful cemetery east of Portsmouth.

Subject: Re: New Edition of the Brown, Bayes, Carleton, Allen Genealogy

Hi All,

It sounds like Frank hasn't been spending all of his time chasing balls at the golf course. I look forward to seeing what he's produced.

From what I have found, I am relatively certain that Nathan was with his brothers at Luzerne County, PA from about 1789 to the early 1790's. I want to look at my Mary and Lemuel Wiggins records to see if Mary, the fifth child of Nathan and Margaret, was born in NY or possibly PA. She was born in 1792. Some of Mary's descendants have her history messed up. It is confusing because her gravestone was misread. After she died Lemuel remarried to a second Mary. According to court documents he was in the process of divorcing that Mary at the time he died. It was misinterpreted that he was divorcing Nathan's daughter Mary Brown. The lady who helped me in Tippecanoe County, IN where they were at the end went out and took a photo of the gravestone of our Mary to confirm the error for me.

I am almost finished with the Reuben Brown family. I never found out who Sarah Jones parents were. Does anyone know?

ODLE FAMILY

William Odell, born about 1715, settled near Randallstown, Baltimore Co., Maryland, where he owned several tracts of land at the time of his death in 1749. Elizabeth, his wife, filed an account in the Office of the Register of Wills, Baltimore Co., listing their children and year of birth: Mary, 1735; John, 1737; William, 1738; Walter, 1742; Elizabeth, 1744; Richard, 1745; Rignal, 1746, and Talbot, 1748.

William Odle-Odell, Jr., son of William, was married in Baltimore Co. to Asenath, the daughter of John and Asenath Owings. They moved west, locating in Hampshire Co., W.Va. where William, in 1783, purchased two tracts of land, 173 acres in each tract, on Allegheny Mountain.

John Odle, son of William, Jr., was born in 1764, settled in the Scioto Valley of Ross Co., Ohio, in 1797. John was active in civil duties, being a justice of peace in Ross Co. He moved to Randolph Co., Ind., in 1819, and here held the office of county treasurer, and for many years was a justice of peace. He owned a combined hotel and tavern in the city of Winchester, with the early post office and county library being located in the hotel. John died in 1833, and Nancy, his wife in 1847.

Caleb, son of John, was born in Hampshire Co., W.Va. He enlisted in the War of 1812, at Ross Co., Ohio, serving as a fourth Corporal. In 1815, Caleb married Hester, the daughter of Nathan and Margaret (Simpson) Brown. During their residence in Ohio, they lived in Jackson Co., the same neighborhood as Hester's family, until 1825, when they followed Caleb's father to Randolph Co., where they were living when Hester died. Caleb and Hester had five children, but only three are known: Zephaniah, Nathan B., and Mary. Caleb married his second wife, Irena Franklin, in 1834, and eventually moved to Newton Co., Ind. where the 80 acres of land was located which the government gave him for his service in the War of 1812. Caleb died in 1865, being buried in Iroquoise Co., Ill. Caleb and Irena had five children: John Wesley (1836-1921); Anthony R. (1839-1890); James Harvey (1846-1932); Caleb William (1850-?); and Newton Edmond (1852-?). He also had five sons who served in the Civil War: Nathan B., Zephaniah B., Anthony R., John W., and James H.

Zephaniah B., the son of Caleb, rode on horseback with his sister, Mary, from Deerfield, to Adams Co., where he settled in Washington Twp. His sister, Mary, went to work as a housekeeper for Joel Roe, an early pioneer settler in Washington Twp. whose wife had recently died leaving him with an infant daughter. During Aug. of 1841, Mary was united in marriage to Joel and remained his housekeeper throughout his life. (See Roe Family)

In 1838, Zephaniah married Mary, daughter of Perry and Sarah (Archibold) Andrews. They were the parents of seven children, but only two lived an average life span. Malinda and Sarah died young, and three sons, Nathan, Perry, and Caleb, along with their father Zephaniah, were all killed in the Civil War. Zephaniah died at Memphis, Tenn., of smallpox. Mary, his wife, died in 1857. Hester married James Wesley Smith and Aaron was raised by Perry Andrews.

Aaron (1854-1944), son of Zephaniah, was married in Feb. of 1873 to Celia Ann (1856-1926), the daughter of Alexander Smith, of Monroe Twp. Aaron was a lifelong resident of the Decatur area, and was employed as a miller in Decatur for many years previous to his retirement. Aaron and Celia, members of the First United Brethren church in Decatur, were the parents of ten children: Lilly Mae (1873-1928) who married Lewis Conrad; Jessie M. (1875-1907) who never married; Anna Louella (1878-1962) who married Charles Spade; Mary Edna (1881-1941) who married George Wertzberger; Orinda Jane (1883-1942) who married Charles Bushnell; Alpha Myrtle (1885-1954) who married James Fuller; Ada Agnes (1888-1959) who married Walter Sudduth; Martin Grover (1891-1950) who married Nettie Reynolds; Forest Lynn who died in infancy; and Harry Argo (1899-1948) whose wife was named Thelma.

Grover, (1891-1950), son of Aaron, was united in marriage to Nettie, the daughter of Lewis H. and Emma (Leyse) Reynolds. In 1912, Grover was employed by the St. Louis Sugar Mill, which eventually became Central Soya, and continued employment with this company until his death in 1950.

Nettie, his wife, a devoted mother, worked at the Schafer Glove Factory for 17 years, retiring when she was 74 years of age. She is a pleasant, humorous person, giving laughter to others and now, at the age of 86, is involved with her hobbies of crochet, needle work, and making noodles, at her home located at 230 N. Seventh St., in Decatur, where she has lived for 50 years. They were blessed with seven children: Isabelle (1912), who married Siguard Anderson; Richard (1914), who married Tony Gengrich; Robert (1916), who married Marge Swanson; Kathaleen (1917), who married Ford Shaffer; Max (1920), who married Pauline Melick; Eileen (1922), who married Mr. Mayden; and Grover (1933), who married Ada Foor and was a former chief of police in Decatur.

ODLE FAMILY

William Odell, born about 1715, settled near Randallstown, Baltimore Co., Maryland, where he owned several tracts of land at the time of his death in 1749. Elizabeth, his wife, filed an account in the Office of the Register of Wills, Baltimore Co., listing their children and year of birth: Mary, 1735; John, 1737; William, 1738; Walter, 1742; Elizabeth, 1744; Richard, 1745; Rignal, 1746; and Talbot, 1748.

William Odle-Odell, Jr., son of William, was married in Baltimore Co. to Asenath, the daughter of John and Asenath Owings. They moved west, locating in Hampshire Co., W.Va. where William, in 1783, purchased two tracts of land, 173 acres in each tract, on Allegheny Mountain.

John Odle, son of William, Jr., was born in 1764, settled in the Scioto Valley of Ross Co., Ohio, in 1797. John was active in civil duties, being a justice of peace in Ross Co. He moved to Randolph Co., Ind., in 1819, and here held the office of county treasurer, and for many years was a justice of peace. He owned a combined hotel and tavern in the city of Winchester, with the early post office and county library being located in the hotel. John died in 1833, and Nancy, his wife in 1847.

Caleb, son of John, was born in Hampshire Co., W.Va. He enlisted in the War of 1812, at Ross Co., Ohio, serving as a fourth Corporal. In 1815, Caleb married Hester, the daughter of Nathan and Margaret (Simpson) Brown. During their residence in Ohio, they lived in Jackson Co., the same neighborhood as Hester's family, until 1825, when they followed Caleb's father to Randolph Co., where they were living when Hester died. Caleb and Hester had five children, but only three are known: Zephaniah, Nathan B., and Mary. Caleb married his second wife, Irena Franklin, in 1834, and eventually moved to Newton Co., Ind. where the 80 acres of land was located which the government gave him for his service in the War of 1812. Caleb died in 1865, being buried in Iroquoise Co., Ill. Caleb and Irena had five children: John Wesley (1836-1921); Anthony R. (1839-1890); James Harvey (1846-1932); Caleb William (1850-?); and Newton Edmond (1852-?). He also had five sons who served in the Civil War; Nathan B., Zephaniah B., Anthony R., John W., and James H.

Zephaniah B., the son of Caleb, rode on horseback with his sister, Mary, from Deerfield, to Adams Co., where he settled in Washington Twp. His sister, Mary, went to work as a housekeeper for Joel Roe, an early pioneer settler in Washington Twp. whose wife had recently died leaving him with an infant daughter. During Aug. of 1841, Mary was united in marriage to Joel and remained his housekeeper throughout his life. (See Roe Family)

In 1838, Zephaniah married Mary, daughter of Perry and Sarah (Archibold) Andrews. They were the parents of seven children, but only two lived an average life span. Malinda and Sarah died young, and three sons, Nathan, Perry, and Caleb, along with their father Zephaniah, were all killed in the Civil War. Zephaniah died at Memphis, Tenn., of smallpox. Mary, his wife, died in 1857. Hester married James Wesley Smith and Aaron was raised by Perry Andrews.

Grover, (1891-1950), son of Aaron, was united in marriage to Nettie, the daughter of Lewis H. and Emma (Leyse) Reynolds. In 1912, Grover was employed by the St. Louis Sugar Mill, which eventually became Central Soya, and continued employment with this company until his death in 1950.

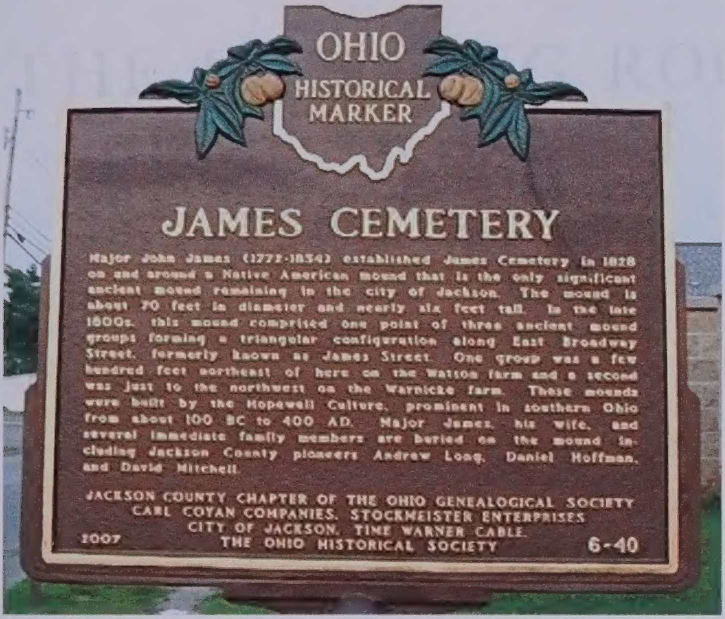
James Cemetery Marker, Jackson, Ohio



JAMES CEMETERY

Major John James (1772-1854) established James Cemetery in 1828 on and around a Native American mound that is the only significant ancient mound remaining in the city of Jackson. The mound is about 70 feet in diameter and nearly six feet tall. In the late 1800s, this mound comprised one point of three ancient mound groups forming a triangular configuration along East Broadway Street, formerly known as James Street. One group was a few hundred feet northeast of here on the Watson farm and a second was just to the northwest on the Warnicke farm. These mounds were built by the Hopewell Culture, prominent in southern Ohio from about 100 BC to 400 AD. Major James, his wife, and several immediate family members are buried on the mound including Jackson County pioneers Andrew Long, Daniel Hoffman, and David Mitchell.

the Fifth Ohio Battery. Both were wounded April 6th and were carried to the boat at the landing by their brother, William H. Howell. Not receiving proper individual attention until they reached Cincinnati, both died. They lie buried side by side at Oak Hill. Doctor Miller and F. M. Keith later brought back a true version of the experiences of the Fifth-third and it was soon accepted that the Jackson companies had played their parts like men, and later in the war they wiped out the memory of Pittsburg Landing in many a battlefield. There were fifteen Jackson County men in the Fifth Battery, of whom Capt. R. H. Jones was the best known. Jones in writing of the battle said: "I may say here as a parting remark that the surprise of Gen. Grant's army was as complete a one as was ever effected."

A few weeks later there died another old soldier, Rev. Isaac Brown, also of the Fifty-third. His death occurred at Pittsburg Landing and was due to camp disease. He was born in New York, June 14, 1801, and died May 4, 1862. He came to Jackson County when a young boy and was converted at a camp meeting on the farm of Peter Bunn in 1816. This meeting was conducted by Revs. Jacob Delay, Westlake and Page. Brown remained a churchman until his death. He opened one of the first mines at Jackson, and he was a leader in starting the Isaac Brown School. A. R. Eicher, of Messenger's company, died a week later at Camp Dennison, and Branson Dever, of the same regiment, died at his home at Monroe, May 19, 1862.

Greenbrier Soldiers

Early in the history of the county the men of Greenbrier County, Virginia, invaded Ohio and learned of the Scioto Licks, and in later years many of them came back here as pioneers. Oddly enough, sons and grandsons of these pioneers, when they enlisted for the Civil war, were sent into the Greenbrier District, whence their ancestors had come, and Jackson County now played an important part in the battle of Lewisburg, May 23, 1862. Maj. John J. Hoffman, writing of the Union victory, said: "We lost 8 killed and 40 wounded. Of the killed were T. McCole, Gough and Samuel T. Simmons, and wounded Charles Wharton in the hand, Fred Wallace in the face, Jim O'Connor in the thigh, John Kelley in the hand, Bill Alton in the head, William Rose in the hand, John Laird in the foot, Jos. L. Anderson and Downey, but none severe. They are all from our county. I saw Capts. Walden and Dunham as they moved up and no men could have behaved better. Walden's company suffered most and when I came to them immediately after the fight they were all in fine spirits and eager to advance."

S. S. Hawk, writing from Captain Dunham's company, said: "George Shearer was killed and Charles Martin, Levi Allen, Amos Marsh, A. Louderback, Peter McDonald, Milton Phillips, Isaac Ward, George Venters and James H. Yeager wounded." Allen died later. Milton Phillips was shot through the body with a squirrel rifle by a citizen. The ball lodged against the skin in front and broke two of his

Died,

Rev. Isaac Brown, at Pittsburgh Landing, Tenn., on the 4th of May, 1862, of camp disease. Mr. Brown was born in the State of New York, June 14th, 1801, and came to this county when a youth; and has remained in this community until the Regiment in which he was a volunteer was ordered to the field of battle.

His long and exemplary life as a citizen, has built up for him a permanent and worthy character for truthfulness and fidelity. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1816, and was converted at a camp meeting held by Revs. Jacob Delay, Westlake and Page, a few miles east of Jackson, on the farm of Peter Bunn; and during this long period, forty-five years, he was always found at his post, taking an active and influential part in the Church of his choice. He has worthily filled the offices of Steward, Leader and Trustee in the church. He was licensed as a local preacher in 1837, and was a zealous, spirited and acceptable laborer in that relation, and many who are now living will long remember his strong and touching appeals. But his strong, clear voice is stilled and hushed in death—we will hear it no more. May we profit by his example of devotion to God.

He has left an aged widow, one son now in Pope's Division, one son here, two daughters, and a large circle of friends and acquaintances to mourn their loss.

In him, the Church has lost a long-tried and firm friend, and an able supporter. Though he fell from home, on the field of battle, among strangers, he maintained his christian integrity to the last.

Com.

Died,

Bro. Isaac Brown, at Pittsburgh Landing, Tenn., on the 6th of May, 1862, of camp disease. Mr. Brown was born in the State of New York, June 14th, 1801; and came to this county when a youth; and has remained in this community until the Regiment in which he was a volunteer was ordered to the field of battle.

His long and exemplary life as a citizen, has built up for him a permanent and worthy character for truthfulness and fidelity. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1818, and was converted at a camp meeting held by Revs. Jacob Haley, Westlake and Page, a few miles east of Jackson, on the farm of Peter Hoover, and during this long period, forty-five years, he was always found at his post, taking an active and interesting part in the Church of his choice. He has worthily filled the offices of Steward, Leader and Trustee in the church. He was licensed as a local preacher in 1837, and was a zealous, spirited and acceptable laborer in that relation, and many who are now living will long remember his strong and touching appeals. But his strong, clear voice is stilled and hushed in death — we will hear it no more. May we profit by his example of devotion to God.

He has left an aged widow, one son now in Pope's Division, one son here, two daughters, and a large circle of friends and acquaintances to mourn their loss.

In him, the Church has lost a long-tried and true friend, and an able supporter. Though he fell from home, on the field of battle, among strangers, he maintained his christian integrity to the last.

Mrs. Barsheba Brown died on Saturday morning, and was buried in the old Jamestown graveyard on Sunday afternoon. 5-5-1877

Mrs. Brown was 72 years of age, had resided in or near Jackson for 61 years, had been a consistent and blameless member of the M. E. Church for 60 years. She was emphatically a good woman, and was more remarkable for honesty and genuine common sense, than for any noisy professions.

One of her sons, John D. Brown, is the present surveyor of Jackson county.
